Thanks James, that's a fascinating read and very thought provoking. And I'm only half way through part 1 so far. So much of what Mr Guenther says makes sense and chimes with what we have seen these past few years

I'm not sure about Steiner though, I'm conflicted tbh. He talks a lot of sense but some of his stuff is too far of a stretch for me. That could be due to my ignorance of course...

He says:

".....the "members" of the human being. "Members" are the different "bodies," both physical and non-physical, that constitute a human being. For example, in Steiner's cosmology, there is the Material body, Astral body, Etheric body, Soul, The "I", the Angel, the Double, etc."

and

"The human being lives also in all areas of the supersensible world and consists of many higher members (bodies), which together form the human aura in its complexity. In former times, these members – often under different names – were part of a cognitive inquiry and spiritual traditions. Today the best-known entity among these members is the material body."

Wow...

And I've seen it convincingly said that he was, at root, some sort of spook

With a group of spiritually minded people, I visited the Steiner centre outside Basel. It was a magic day and the atmosphere was so wonderful. Although it was 20 years ago, I hold very special memories of the wonderful atmosphere in the centre.
